Dream Theater - A Nightmare To Remember

Tom: Eb

```
   Cm
Lying on the table
                F
In this unfamiliar place,
        Cm
I'm greeted by a stranger,
    F
A man without a face.
              Cm
He said: "Son, do you remember?
        F
Do you even know your name?"
            Cm
Then he shined a light into my eye
              F
And said: "Take this for the pain".

Hopelessly drifting,
 Bb                 Cm
Bathing in beautiful agony...
        Ab
I am endlessly falling,
 Bb                 C
Lost in this wonderful misery.
    Ab              Bb
In peaceful sedation I lay half awake,
  Gm              Ab
And all of the panic inside starts to fade.
Hopelessly drifting,

"Tell me, does this hurt you?"
  F
Said the faceless man.
              Cm
"Can you move all of your fingers?
              F
Then you try your best to stand".
    Cm
I asked about the others:
        F
"Is everyone okay?"
          Cm
He told me not to worry
                F
As he turned and looked away.

Hopelessly drifting,
