Dropkick Murphys - The Dirty Glass

Tom:

Intro: D G D G D A D

D G D G D A
Murphy, murphy darling dear I long for you now night and day.
D G D
Your pain was my pleasure your sorrow my joy
G D A D
I fear now i've lost you to health and good cheer

(D G D A D G D A D)

D G D
Darcy when I met you I was 5 years too young
G D A
A boy beyond his age or so i'd tell someone
D G D
Anyone who'd listen and a few who couldn't care
G D A D
Still I welcomed you with open arms my love I did share

D G D A
Darcy, darcy, darling dear, you left me dying crying here
D G D A
D
In whisky, jin, and pints of beer I fell for you my darling dear

D G D
You shut me off then you showed me the door
G D A D
But you always came crawlin back beggin me for more
D G D
I showed you kindness a stool and a tab
G D A D
Then you poured me my pain in a dirty glass
D A G A D
Yeah you left him bloody battered penniless and poor
D A D
You know I often stopped to wonder how he made through my door

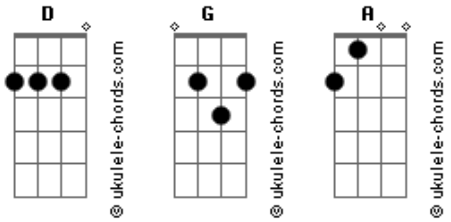
G D
With my brothers new non-duplicate registry i.d
G D A D
Well you bit off more than you could chew the first day you met me

D G D A
Darcy, darcy, darling dear, you left me dying crying here
D G D A
D
In whisky, jin, and pints of beer I fell for you my darling dear

D G D
You weren't the first to court me mister you won't be the last
G D A G
Oh i'm sure I wasn't honey I know all about your past
D G D
G
Well listen to the big shot with his pager on call you spent most of those
D A D
Nights in my bathroom stall.
G D A D
Yeah, you got him high but you left him low
D G D G
D
Mind your own business boy how was I to know that he was just a fiend and a
A D
No good cheat
G D A D
Well thats all in the past bitch cause now I got it beat

D G D A
Darcy, darcy, darling dear, you left me dying crying here
D G D A
D
In whisky, jin, and pints of beer I fell for you my darling dear

Acordes



Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br