

Dropkick Murphys - The Dirty Glass

Intro: D G D G D A D Tom:

D G D G D A D
 Murphy, murphy darling dear I long for you now night and day.
 Your pain was my pleasure your sorrow my joy
 I fear now i've lost you to health and good cheer
 (D G D A D G D A D)

D G D G D A D
 Darcy when I met you I was 5 years too young
 A boy beyond his age or so i'd tell someone
 Anyone who'd listen and a few who couldn't care
 Still I welcomed you with open arms my love I did share

D G D G D A D
 Darcy, darcy, darling dear, you left me dying crying here
 In whisky, jin, and pints of beer I fell for you my darling dear

D G D G D A D
 You shut me off then you showed me the door
 But you always came crawlin back beggin me for more
 I showed you kindness a stool and a tab
 Then you poured me my pain in a dirty glass
 Yeah you left him bloody battered penniless and poor
 You know I often stopped to wonder how he made through my door

G D
 With my brothers new non-duplicate registry i.d
 Well you bit off more than you could chew the first day you met me

D G D G D A D
 Darcy, darcy, darling dear, you left me dying crying here

D
 In whisky, jin, and pints of beer I fell for you my darling dear

D G D G D A D
 You weren't the first to court me mister you won't be the last
 Oh i'm sure I wasn't honey I know all about your past

G D G D A D
 Well listen to the big shot with his pager on call you spent most of those
 Nights in my bathroom stall.

D G D A D
 Yeah, you got him high but you left him low

D G D G D A D
 Mind your own business boy how was I to know that he was just a fiend and a
 No good cheat
 Well thats all in the past bitch cause now I got it beat

D G D G D A D
 Darcy, darcy, darling dear, you left me dying crying here

D
 In whisky, jin, and pints of beer I fell for you my darling dear

Acordes

