

Dua Lipa - No Goodbyes

Tom: C

Maybe one day
I can see you
We can smile and wave
And it'll be okay
Maybe one day it'll be cool
We could just be friends
Without the complications
That it brings
When we start saying things
Yeah, I hurt you
And you hurt me
Yeah, we did somethings that we can never take back
And we tried hard just to fix it
But we broke it more and so I guess somethings are not meant to last it is too much to ask
For tonight
Let's love like there's no goodbyes
Just for tonight
Pretend that is all alright
Why don't we hold each other
Use each other, whisper pretty lies
Just for tonight
Let's love like there's no goodbyes

No goodbyes, no goodbyes
No goodbyes, eh
In a dark room, we don't have to See the light of truth
Between me and you
We can stay blind, in the meantime
Let our bodies say
What we can never seem to communicate
Even though is too late
For tonight
Let's love like there's no goodbyes
Just for tonight
Pretend that is all alright
Why don't we hold each other
Use each other, whisper pretty lies
Just for tonight
Let's love like there's no goodbyes
No goodbyes, no goodbyes, no goodbyes
No goodbyes, no goodbyes, no goodbyes
Maybe one day i'll see you
Just smile and wave and be okay
Just for tonight
Just for tonight
Let's love like there's no goodbyes
