

The Dubliners - The Rising Of The Moon

Tom:

Intro: D A G
D A D

And come, tell me Sean O'Farrell, tell me why you hurry so?
G D A A

Hush a bhuachail, hush and listen, and his cheeks were all aglow

I bear orders from the captain: get you ready quick and soon
G D A D
For the pikes must be together by the rising of the moon

By the rising of the moon, by the rising of the moon
G D A D
For the pikes must be together at the rising of the moon

And come tell me Sean O'Farrell, where the gath'rin is to be?
G D A D
In the old spot by the river, quite well known to you and me

One more word for signal token: whistle out the marchin' tune
G D A D
With your pike upon your shoulder, at the rising of the moon

At the rising of the moon, at the rising of the moon
G D A D
With your pike upon your shoulder, at the rising of the moon

Out from many a mud wall cabin eyes were watching through the night
G D A D
Many a manly heart was beatin, for the blessed morning light
A

Murmurs ran along the valleys to the banshee's lonely croon
G D A D
And a thousand pikes were flashing by the rising of the moon

By the rising of the moon, by the rising of the moon
G D A D
And a thousand pikes were flashing by the rising of the moon

All along that singing river that black mass of men was seen
G D A D
High above their shining weapons, flew their own beloved green

Death to every foe and traitor! Whistle out the marching tune
G D A D
And hurrah my boys for freedom; tis the rising of the moon

Tis the rising of the moon, tis the rising of the moon
G D A D
And hurrah my boys for freedom; tis the rising of the moon

Well they fought for poor old Ireland, and full bitter was their fate

Oh what glorious pride and sorrow, fills the name of ninety-eight!

Yet, thank God, e'en still are beating hearts in manhood burning noon

Who would follow in their footsteps, at the risin' of the moon

By the rising of the moon, by the rising of the moon

Who would follow in their footsteps, at the risin' of the moon
