

Durry - Who's Laughing Now

tom:

Intro: C E Am F

C E Am F
My mama always said I would regret it
C E Am F
If I ever got a tattoo
C E Am F
She said I'd never get a job like I ever wanted
C E Am F
One with that attitude

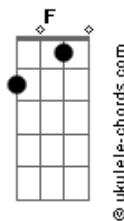

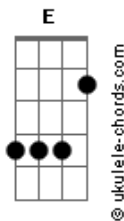

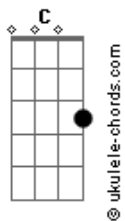

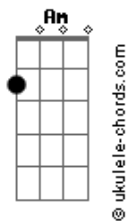

C E Am F
My dad said I had to learn to drive a stick shift
C E Am F
But every van I ever had was an automatic
C E Am F
My friends said that someday I would make it big
C E Am F
But I'm still living in the basement

C E Am F
I'm just as broke as the day I was born
C E Am F
But I still make it work just like everybody else does
C E Am F
It's all just a cruel joke and everybody knows
C E
There's no way out
Am F
Well who's laughing now?

C E Am F
The TV said that I would never get a girlfriend
C E Am F
Unless I had a six pack and smoked cigarettes
C E Am F
Well I've got a couple extra pounds and hottest girl in town
C E Am F
And she don't mind having a little more of me to go around

C E Am F
I'm just as broke as the day I was born
C E Am F
But I still make it work just like everybody else does
C E Am F

Acordes

It's all just a cruel joke and everybody knows

C E
There's no way out
Am F
Well who's laughing now?

C E Am F
The preacher told me this was only just a pipe dream
C E Am F
And I've been burning both ends seven days a week
C E Am F
But baby I just paid the rent making music with my friends
C E Am F
It ain't much, but it could be the start of something big

C E Am F
I'm just as broke as the day I was born
C E Am F
