Durry - Who's Laughing Now

tom: Am Intro: C E Am F Am My mama always said I would regret it F Am If I ever got a tattoo F Am She said I'd never get a job like I ever wanted E Am F One with that attitude Am My dad said I had to learn to drive a stick shift E Am But every van I ever had was an automatic E Am My friends said that someday I would make it big F Am But I'm still living in the basement F Am I'm just as broke as the day I was born E Am But I still make it work just like everybody else does F Am It's all just a cruel joke and everybody knows E There's no way out
Am F Well who's laughing now? Am The TV said that I would never get a girlfriend Am F F Unless I had a six pack and smoked cigarettes E Am Well I've got a couple extra pounds and hottest girl in town E Am F C And she don't mind having a little more of me to go around Am I'm just as broke as the day I was born F

 C
 E Am
 F

 But I still make it work just like everybody else does
 C
 E Am
 F

Acordes

It's all just a cruel joke and everybody knows There's no way_out Well who's laughing now? Е Am The preacher told me this was only just a pipe dream F Am And I've been burning both ends seven days a week E Am But baby I just paid the rent making music with my friends F Am It ain't much, but it could be the start of something big Am I'm just as broke as the day I was born F Am But I still make it work just like everybody else does Am It's all just a cruel joke and everybody knows E There's no way out Well who's laughing now? F Am My mama always said I would regret it E Am If I ever got a tattoo Am F She said I'd never get a job like I ever wanted E. Am One with that attitude Am My dad said I had to learn to drive a stick shift F Am But every van I ever had was an automatic E Am My friends said that someday I would make it big F Am But I'm still living in the basement Well who's laughing now?

Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br