

Easton Corbin - Let Alone You

Tom: C

Intro: D

It was ^DSunday afternoon, I was sunk in my recliner
^{Em}Football game was on, Tampa Bay and Carolina
^DI wasn't payin much attention The volume down not watchin it at all
 This house was like an ice box, had all the curtains drawn
^{Em}I had it more like a hotel room, and less like a home
^GIt's been so quiet around here lately, I wasn't thinkin anyone would call

^DLet alone you, All the way from Dallas
^{Em}Out of the blue Sayin that you missed us
^GAnd time and distance made you see, You were lost without me
^DHow did you know I'd finally hit the bottom
^{Em}An all time low Was suddenly forgotten
^GThe sound of your voice on the line ^{Gbm}Made fate turn circles on a dime
^{Gbm}Just when I thought I'd never find, ^{Bm}somebody new, ^GLet alone you ^A

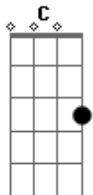

(D)

^GNow here I am at the baggage claim
^DA nervous wreck waitin on your plane
^GRing in my hands, checkin my watch
^DI never dreamed forty-eight hours ago, I'd be standin here waitin on anyone
^ANo, not anyone

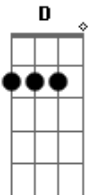

^DLet Alone You, All the way from Dallas
^{Em}Out of the blue, sayin that you missed us
^GAnd time and distance made you see, you were lost without me
^DHow did you know, I'd finally hit the bottom
^{Em}An all time low, suddenly forgotten
^GThe sound of your voice on the line made fate turn circles on the dime
^{Gbm}Just when I thought I'd never find ^{Bm}somebody new ^A
^ALet alone you, ^{D G A}Let alone you
