

Easton Corbin - Let Alone You

Tom: C (D)
Intro: D

D
It was Sunday afternoon, I was sunk in my recliner
Em
Football game was on, Tampa Bay and Carolina
D
I wasn't paying much attention The volume down not watching it at all

This house was like an ice box, had all the curtains drawn
Em
I had it more like a hotel room, and less like a home
G A D
It's been so quiet around here lately, I wasn't thinkin anyone would call

D
Let alone you, All the way from Dallas
Em
Out of the blue Sayin that you missed us
G A
And time and distance made you see, You were lost without me
D
How did you know I'd finally hit the bottom
Em
An all time low Was suddenly forgotten
G Gbm G
The sound of your voice on the line Made fate turn circles on a dime
Gbm G Bm G A
Just when I thought I'd never find, somebody new, Let alone you

G
Now here I am at the baggage claim
A nervous wreck waitin on your plane
D
Ring in my hands, checkin my watch
D
I never dreamed forty-eight hours ago, I'd be standin here waitin on anyone
A
No, not anyone
D
Let Alone You, All the way from Dallas
Em
Out of the blue, sayin that you missed us
G A
And time and distance made you see, you were lost without me
D
How did you know, I'd finally hit the bottom
Em
An all time low, suddenly forgotten
G Gbm G
The sound of your voice on the line made fate turn circles on the dime
Gbm G Bm A G
Just when I thought I'd never find somebody new
A D G A
Let alone you, Let alone you
