

Ed Ames - Try to Remember

Tom: G

D D Em A7
 Try to remember the kind of september
 D D Em A7
 When life was slow and oh, so mellow
 D D Em A7
 Try to remember the kind of september
 D D Em A7
 When grass was green and grain was yellow
 Gbm Bm Em A7
 Try to remember the kind of september
 Dm Gm C A7
 When you were a tender and callow fellow
 D D Em A7 D D Gm A7
 Try to remember, and if you remember, then follow
 D D Em A7
 Try to remember when life was so tender
 D D Em A7
 That no one wept except the willow
 D D Em A7
 Try to remember when life was so tender

D D Em A7
 That dreams were kept beside your pillow
 Gbm Bm Em A7
 Try to remember when life was so tender
 Dm Gm C A7
 That love was an ember about to billow
 D D Em A7 D D Gm A7
 Try to remember, and if you remember, then follow
 D D Em A7
 Deep in december, it's nice to remember
 D D Em A7
 Although you know the snow will follow
 D D Em A7
 Deep in december, it's nice to remember
 D D Em A7
 Without a hurt the heart is hollow
 Gbm Bm Em A7
 Deep in december, it's nice to remember
 Dm Gm C A7
 The fire of september that makes us mellow
 D D Em A7 D D Gm Gdim D
 Try to remember, and if you remember, then follow
