

Ed Sheeran - Addicted

Tom: G

I think I took too much
 I'm addicted to your touch
 But I'm crying
 In shame again

 And now I'm high as a kite
 And I know I might be gone
 When you get home

 Oh well, we've come this far
 You're my Venus

And I'm your Mars
 And we've passed the moon
 and stars
 And I'm gone

 And now I'm high as a kite
 And I know I might be gone
 When you get home
 And now I'm high as a kite
 And I know I might be gone
 When you get home
 So please come home
