Dm C Dm
Things were all good yesterday
And then the devil took your memory F Bb
And if you fell to your death today F Bb
I hope that heaven is your resting place Dm
I heard the doctors put your chest in pain C F
But then that could've been the medicine Am Gm
And now you're lying in the bed again Dm C
Either way I'll cry with the rest of them Bb
F Dm
And my father told me, son
Gm Dm Gm Dm F C
It's not his fault he doesn't know your face
F Dm
And you're not the only one
Gm Dm Gm Dm C
Although my grandma used to say
Am
That he used to say
Dm C Bb Gm
Darling, hold me in your arms the way you did last night
Am
And we'll lie in sight for a little while, he wrote
Dm C Bb Gm
I could look into your eyes until the sun comes up
Am
And we're wrapped in light, in life, in love
Dm C Bb Gm
Put your open lips on mine and slowly let them shut
Am
For they're designed to be together, oh
Dm C Bb Gm
With your body next to mine our hearts will beat as one
Am Gm Dm Gm Dm C
And we're set alight, we're afire in love
