

Ed Sheeran - Head > Heels

tom:

Intro: C A

[Primeira Parte]

She came in the bedroom
 Lookin' like a photograph
 Turned to face the window
 Moonlight traced the contours of her back
 Only she can see me
 Shed the skin that guards the man
 Sheltered by the ceiling
 This is the start and end of everything

[Pré-Refrão]

And we'll go it alone
 'Cause no one will understand
 How it just feels like flying
 Here within the confines of your bed
 How beautiful we blend

[Refrão]

Crashin' in, head, then heels
 Crashin' in, head, then heels
 Crashin' in, head, then heels
 Crashin' in, head, then heels

[Segunda Parte]

Unrequited love songs
 Longing words we used to sing
 Your faith was in the first one

We opened up our hearts to let them in
 And now all these scars are keloids (These scars are)
 Reminding us and cautioning (Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh)
 Rebuild what was destroyed (Rebuild what was destroyed)
 Turn it, then the chapter can begin (Ahh)

[Pré-Refrão]

And we'll go it alone
 'Cause no one will understand
 How this just feels like flying
 Here within the confines of your bed
 How beautiful we blend

[Ponte]

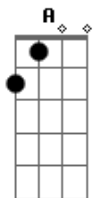

And, together, we soar
 High over the old wasteland
 And we escaped the fire
 And planted roots when there was nothin' left
 How beautiful we blend

[Refrão]

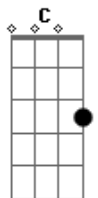

Crashing in, head then heels
 Crashing in, head then heels
 Crashing in, head then heels
 Crashing in, head then heels (Woah, woah, woah)

Crashing in, head then heels
 Crashing in, head then heels
 Crashing in, head then heels
 Crashing in, head then heels
