and hope our eyes keep telling lies

Sit on the back porch and wonder 'bout her What is she doing right now Making somebody a happier man Dying her hair back to brown

Once in a while your life gets so good Worth all the trouble of the past That was the case but i think i always knew Good things don't ever last

And if i ever see her again Just walking by with some new guy I know that we will need to pretend And hope our eyes keep telling lies

I like a girl with a dirty mouth Know that i can trust her We had our time but it didn't last too long And that time is good and gone That time is good and gone
