

Eels - Going To Your Funeral

Tom: C

GOING TO YOUR FUNERAL (Part one)

IMPORTANT :

Intro: 2nd guitar twice then begin the first guitar WITH the 2nd just once

2nd guitar

1st guitar

1st VERSE

C going to your funeral and feeling i could scream B
Bb everything goes away Am
C driving down the highway through the perfect sunny dream B
Bb a perfect day for perfect pain Am

CHORUS

C look at all the people with the flowers in their hands, G Bb F
C they put the flower on the box that's holding all the sand G Bb F that was...
C that was once... G
Bb F C G Bb

that was once youuuuuuuuuuu

C B Bb Am (with the 2nd guitar)

2nd VERSE

Honolulu hurricane i knew that you were not insane, living in the insane world (enter the 1st guitar)
 smiling like it's no big deal scabby wounds that never heal
 the woman was only a girl

CHORUS

look at all the people with their heads down in their hands when everything I'm feeling makes it hard to understand that, uh
 what i need to miss it's... what i need to miss is you

C B Bb Am (with the 2nd guitar)

3rd VERSE (distorted guitar playing like the vocal thunder sound)
 Going to your funeral and feeling like a fool
 no ones gonna take the blame, thinking bout the days of hanging out behind the school
 everything goes away.

Chords:

C x35553
B x24442
Bb x13331
Am x02210
G 320033
F 133211

Any corrections :

Acordes

