

Eels - I Write The B-side

Tom: D

Tabbed by: Anton Petersson 5/10-05
Email:

Tuning: EADGBE

Chords:

D	E7	G
e --2--	e --0--	e --2--
B --3--	B --3--	B --2--
G --2--	G --1--	G --0--
D --0--	D --0--	D --0--
A -----	A --2--	A --2--
E -----	E --0--	E -----

Intro: Okay, this is the right way to play it..

D E G D

..but if you play on an acoustic guitar it may be easier to play it this way.

D E7 G D

(play these chords as you played them in the intro)

D E
I write the b-sides
G D
that make a small portion of the world cry
D E
i like the seaside
G D
and singing songs that make you not wanna die
D E throw a stone into the sea
G D
and wait for it to come back to me

D E
better get out on the boat
G D
'cause someone told me that stones don't float

(start to play the chords as usual)

| D | E | G | D | x2

(stop playing)

i like to sit out back and look up at the squirrels in the trees they don't like radio tracks and they don't ever talk down to (start playing as the tab above)

D E
throw a nut up in the tree
G D gonna fall right back on me
D E
well these guys know who they are
G D
and what they need is in their own backyard

| D | E7 | G | D | x4 (after the second, you start to play the tab as above)

(strange sound, play it if you have somekind of footpedal)

D E
i like to play in the snow
G D i stick my hand in now where did it go
D E
it might be mighty cold
G D
but that's all part of not doing what you're told
| D | E | G | D | Repeat until the song ends

Send commets or anything you would like to send to my e-mail

Acordes

