Piano

spunky don't like her uniform it never fit so good going back to the orphanage and the place where her garage once stood well it's a free-for-all free-for-all, free-for-all it's a free-for-all you and me and if you don't like what they are telling you you can't teach a blind man to see well i can see spunky looks good in her bright red wig eating chocolate chip mint ice cream a cat named lola with a violent past is balled-up asleep 'cross her knees and it's a free-for-all

 one day the world will be ready for you and wonder how they didn't see spunky knows she can save the world in her own little way turning in her old uniform

 'cause you know it really didn't pay

'cause it's a free-for-all
 i'll walk through the world with your name on my tongue and your picture etched on my screen
