

Ekena - Agda

tom:

Intro: C

There's a story about a girl

She never talked to anyone

She never comes back to her home

She wakes up and pray

And her voice cries out to every part in her body

As if all her dreams are stolen

And thought, any guilt in her arms

She still sings love songs

And hopes that he will return to save her off the loneliness

That she's living, within on your shell

Now she cries, hidden within on off it's secret weapons

Now she cries, looking for some kind of redemptions attached to your on doubt

What about me?

Now she cries

What about me?

Now she cries

What about me?

What about me?

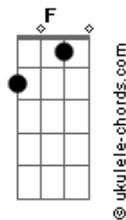

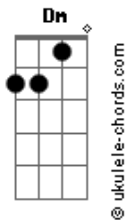

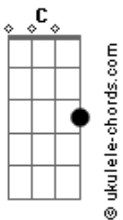

About a girl

She never talked to anyone

She never comes back to her home

She wakes up and pray

Acordes

And her voice cries out to every part in her body
As if all her dreams are stolen

And thought, any guilt in her arms

She still sings love songs

And hopes that he will return to save her off the loneliness

That she's living, within on your shell

Now she cries, hidden within on off it's secret weapons

Now she cries, looking for some kind of redemptions attached to your on doubt

Now she cries, hidden within on off it's secret weapons

Now she cries, looking for some kind of redemptions attached to your on doubt

What about me?

Now she cries

What about me?

Now she cries

What about me?

What about me?

Now she cries

Now she cries

What about me?

What about me?

What about me?

What about me?