

Elephant Casino - Life Of Treasures

tom:

Intro: Cm G Em7 Bm

I've just begun to think about these passing days
 Time has gone by, it's brought about all these mistakes

It's a treasure
 Reading all these letters written deeply in my soul

A Kind of pleasure, searching for what I am

Clouds of the past I can't explain my love for rain

Forgiveness to the child for trying his best

I'm searching for healing through unspoken feelings

That's a treasure

Ancient signs engraved so deeply in my soul

A taste of pleasure, reaching for myself

We're moving on tracing footprints, in space and time

'Till all is done, we're all dying stars, in the night sky

I'm so high, high, high, high enough to fall!

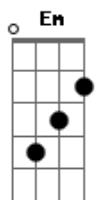

Life of treasures

I'm writing pages bound so deep within my soul

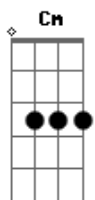

It's such a pleasure, diving into myself

All this life in me!
