Elevation Worship - Been So Good

```
How You love me
                                                          Ebm Db
                         tom:
                                                                           В
                                                          What a friend You have been
              Gb
Intro: Gb Gb B Db
                                                                  Db
                                                          So good to me
                                                                      Gb
[Primeira Parte]
                                                          God I can?t believe
         Gb
Gb
                                                          How You love me
I call You faithful
    В
                                                          What a friend You have been
For the promises You?ve kept
 Db
And every need You?ve met
                                                          ( B Db Gb Ebm Db B )
                                                          ( B Db Gb Ebm Db B )
Gb Gb
Lord I?m so grateful
                                                          [Ponte]
 В
You were with me every step
                                                          В
    Db
                                                           For every morning
And I never will forget
                                                          Db
                                                           For every open door
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                          Gb
                                                          I call You faithful
R
                                                          Ebm Db
When I think of how You?ve blessed me
                                                          I just wanna thank You Lord
Db
                             Fbm
How Your hand has never let me go
                                                          R
                                                          For every mountain
          Db
B
Never let me go
                                                          Db
                                                           For every time You brought me through [Refrão]
                                                          Gb
                                                          I call You faithful
   В
                      Db
                                                          Fbm
                                                                     Db
You have been so good to me
                                                          I just wanna thank You Lord
       Gb
God I can?t believe
                                                           For Your forgiveness
How You love me
                                                          Dh
                В
Ebm Db
                                                          For how You never turned away
What a friend You have been
                                                          Gb
 Db
                                                          I call You faithful
So good to me
                                                          Fbm
                                                                  Db
            Gb
                                                          I just wanna thank You Lord
God I can?t believe
How You love me
                                                          For Your salvation
Ebm Db
                     Gb
                                                          Db
What a friend You have been
                                                           You paid the price I couldn?t pay
                                                          Gb
[Segunda Parte]
                                                          I call You faithful
                                                          Ebm Db
                                                          I just wanna thank You Lord
Gb
         Gb
I call you Savior
      B
                                                          ( B Ebm Gb Db )
For the blood that washed me clean
                                                          (B Ebm Gb Db)
                                                          (Abm Ebm Gb Db)
(B B Gb Db)
    Db
For the wrongs that You redeemed
Gb
            Gb
                                                          [Refrão]
I know You?re able В
 В
                                                                                 Dh
My eyes don?t have to see
                                                          You have been so good to me
       Db
                                                                      Gb
One more reason to believe
                                                          God I can?t believe
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                          How You love me
                                                          Ebm Db
                                                                              R
                                                          What a friend You have been
When I think of how You?ve blessed me
                                                                   Db
                                                          So good to me
Gb
Db
                             Ebm
How Your hand has never let me go
                                                          God I can?t believe
          Db
B
Never let me go
                                                          How You love me
[Refrão]
                                                          Ebm Db
                                                                              Gb
                                                          What a friend You have been
        R
                      Db
You have been so good to me Gb
                                                          [Final] B Ebm Gb Db
                                                                 B Ebm Gb Db
God I can?t believe
                                                                 Abm Ebm Gb Db
```

Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br

Acordes

