

Elias - The Ballad Of Every Town Ive Ever Been To

tom:
 Hello. I am Elias
 And you're going to remember this forever
 I was born a drifter
 And my highway is the sky
 ( Em G D C )
 [Primeira Parte]
 Pittsburgh to Philly
 Chicago to L.A
 Portland, San Diego
 Down to Santa Fe
 Hartford to Albany
 Couldn't get much worse
 Every time I come here it feels like I've been cursed
 Minneapolis, all the way to Omaha
 I can't even describe the ignorance I saw

[Refrão]
 I'm waiting for a town that's not such a disgrace
 But I see so many stupid people, I wanna punch them in the face

[Segunda Parte]
 Every city I go, it all feels the same

Acordes

It's got to be the people, they're the ones to blame
 Detroit to Nashville - it's an American music scene
 When I look into their eyes it makes me wanna scream
 [Refrão]
 I'm waiting for a town that's not such a disgrace
 But I see so many lost people, I wanna punch them in the face
 [Terceira Parte]
 New York, it feels like hell
 And San Antonio as well
 Phoenix to Seattle is where my darkest thoughts dwell
 [Refrão]
 I'm waiting for a town that's not such a disgrace
 Grab your cross and walk with me, or I'll punch you in the face
 I'm waiting for a town that's not such a disgrace
 But I see so many stupid people, I wanna punch them in the face
 ( Em G D C )
 So I'll keep searching
 Until I find that town
 But until that day
 I'll be around
