

Elton John - All That I'm Allowed

Tom: Db

Verse 1:

Breaking down never seems to be that hard.
 Falling short is always in the cards.
 Among the road, sun rising up my back,
 Lost it all somewhere between the cracks.
 I always hoped that I'd do better.
 That I'd come out on top for once.
 We all get what we're delivered.
 Then there are the lucky ones.

Chorus: And I've got all that I'm allowed.
 It'll do for me.
 I'm thankful now.
 The walls get higher everyday.
 The barriers get in the way,

But I see hope in every cloud, and I'm thankful,
 Thankful. I'm thankful, so thankful;
 I'm thankful I've got all that I'm allowed.

Verse 2:

Leaving town gets to feel just like a job.
 My desire never winds up on top.
 I can't say now I didn't want to moon.
 It's out of reach:
 Somewhere beyond this room.
 I always hoped that I'd do better,
 That I'd come out on top for once.
 We all get what we're delivered,

Then there are the lucky ones.

-Repeat chorus-

Bridge:

I've always tried to make things clear.
 Then I watched as progress stalled.
 I only hope I'm standing here
 When heaven finally comes to call.

-Repeat chorus-

Outro: Thankful, I'm thankful, so thankful. I'm thankful,
 I've got all that I'm allowed.
 All that I'm allowed.
 I'm thankful, and I've got all that I'm allowed.

So thankful, and I've got all that I'm allowed.

Instrument break

Outro: Thankful, I'm thankful, so thankful. I'm thankful,
 I've got all that I'm allowed.
 All that I'm allowed.
 I'm thankful, and I've got all that I'm allowed.

So thankful, and I've got all that I'm allowed.
