Well they've locked up their daughters and they battened the hatches

They always could find us but they never could catch us
 Through the grease streaked windows of an all night cafe

We watched the arrested get taken away
 And that cigarette haze has ecology heat

As the whores and the drunks filed in from the street

F7 Bbm Db
 `Cause the steams in the boiler, the coals in the fire

Gb Ab7 Db
 If you ask how I am then I'll just say inspired

F7 Bbm Db
 If the thorn of a rose is the thorn in your side

Ebm Gb Ab7
 Then you're better off dead if you haven't yet died
