

Elton John - Empty Garden

Tom: E

Tom :E

A
What happened here

E
As the New York sunset disappeared

B Dbm
I found an empty garden among the flagstones there

A
Who lived here

E
He must have been a gardener that cared a lot

B
Who weeded out the tears and grew a good crop

Dbm
And now it all looks strange

B A B E
It's funny how one insect can damage so much grain

A
And what's it for

E
This little empty garden by the brownstone door

B Dbm
And in the cracks along the sidewalk nothing grows no more

A
Who lived here

E
He must have been a gardener that cared a lot

B
Who weeded out the tears and grew a good crop

Dbm B A

And we are so amazed we're crippled and we're dazed

B E
A gardener like that one no one can replace

Chorus:
A E
And I've been knocking but no one answers

A Dbm (Abm Dbm)
And I've been knocking most all the day

Gbm Dbm
Oh and I've been calling oh hey hey Johnny

A B E
Can't you come out to play

A
And through their tears

E
Some say he farmed his best in younger years

B Dbm
But he'd have said that roots grow stronger if only he could hear

A
Who lived there

E
He must have been a gardener that cared a lot

B
Who weeded out the tears and grew a good crop

Dbm B A
Now we pray for rain, and with every drop that falls

B E
We hear, we hear your name

Chorus Twice
Gbm A B E
Johnny, can't you come out to play in your empty garden
(Repeat Last Line And Fade)
