

Elton John - Talking Old Soldiers

Tom: Eb

Cm
why hello

G
say can i buy you another glass of beer

Cm
well thanks alot, thats kind of you

G
its nice to know you care

Ab7 G7 Cm Cm
these days theres so much going on

Ab7 G7 Cm Cm
no one seems to want to know

Ab7 G7 Cm Cm F
I may be just an old soldier to some

Ab7 G7
but i know how it feels to grow old

Cm
yeah thats right

G
you can see me here most every night

Cm G
youll always see me staring at the wall and the lights

Ab7 G7 Cm Cm
funny i remeber though its years ago id say

Ab7 G7 Cm Cm
id stand at the bar with my friends whove passed away

Ab7 G7 Cm Cm F
and drink three times the beer that i can drink today

Ab7 G7
yes i know how it feels to grow old

Cm

i know what theyre saying son

Cm
there goes old mad joe again

F
well i maybe mad at that ive seen enough

Ab
to make a man go out his brain

Cm
well do they know what its like to have a grave yard as a friend

Cm7 F
cause thats where they are boy all of them

Ab7 G7
dont seem likely that ill get friends like that again

Cm
well its time ive moved off

G
but its been great just listening to you

Cm G
and i might even see you the next time im passing through

Ab7 G7 Cm Cm
youre right threse so much going on

Ab7 G7 Cm Cm
no one seems to want to know

Ab7 G7
so keep well, keep well old friend

Cm Cm F
and have another drink on me

Ab7
just ignore all the others

G7 Cm
youve got your memories

Cm Ab7 G7 Cm
youve got your memories

Acordes

