

Elvis Costello - 45

Tom: A

(play stacatto)

A G D C
 Bells are chiming for victory
 D C G A
 There's a page back in history
 D A
 45 G D C
 They came back to the world that they fought for
 D C G
 Didn't turn out just like they thought
 A D A
 45

D E D E
 Here is a song to sing to do the measuring
 D E
 (guitarbass)
 What do you lose, what do you gain, what do you win?

Nine years later a child is born
 There's a record, so you put it on 45
 Nine years more, if we're lucky now
 Nine-year-old puts his money down
 45
 Every scratch, every click, every heartbeat
 Every breath that I held for you
 45
 There's a stack of shellac and vinyl
 Which is yours now and which is mine?
 45

Here is a song to sing to do the measuring
 What do you lose, what do you gain, what do you win?

A D
 Bass and treble heal every hurt
 C G
 There's a rebel in a nylon shirt
 A G D
 But the words are a mystery, I've heard
 Gb B (Gbm and Bm on organ)
 'Til you turn it down to 33 and 1/3
 A G D C D
 'Cos it helps with the elocution
 C G
 Corporations turn revolutions
 A G A
 45

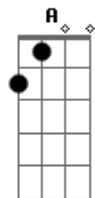

So don't just weep and shed
 Just change your name instead
 What do you lose when it all goes to your head?

I heard something peculiar said:
 "Perhaps he's got a shot and now he's dead"
 45

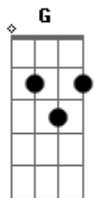

Bells are chiming and tears are falling
 It creeps up on you without a warning
 45
 Every scratch, every click, every heartbeat
 Every breath that I bless
 I'd be lost, I confess
 45

A G A G to fade

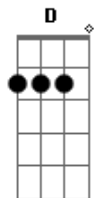

Acordes

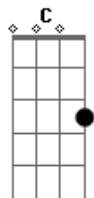

© ukulele-chords.com

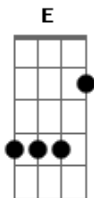

© ukulele-chords.com

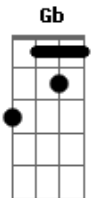

© ukulele-chords.com

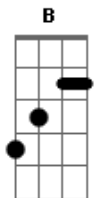

© ukulele-chords.com

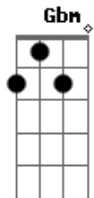

© ukulele-chords.com

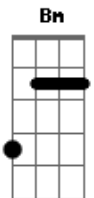

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com