

Elvis Presley - Give Me The Right

Tom: C

Give me the right
 To hold you tonight
 The tears that Ive cried over you
 Give me the right
 You cant say no
 When I need you so
 I want you back in my arms
 Give me the right
 If you looked deep in your heart

Like I looked into mine
 Youll find that nothing has changed
 Our love was there all the time
 Why make me plead
 For something you need
 I want to bring back the thrill
 Give me the right
 Why make me plead
 For something you need
 I want to bring back the thrill
 Give me the right..
