

Elvis Presley - I Really Don't Want To Know

Tom: A

How many arms have held you, and hated to let you go
 How many, how many I wonder, but I really don't want to know.
 How many lips have kissed you, and set your heart all aglow
 How many, how many I wonder, but I really don't want to know.

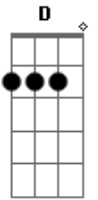

(chorus)

So always make me wonder, always make me guess
 And even if I ask you, Darling don't confess.
 Just let it remain your secret, 'cause Darling I love you so
 No wonder, no wonder I wonder, but I really don't want to know.
