 When a man was proud to walk up and shake on his neighbors'
 hand

^F
 Oh you talk about the good times

^C
 Talk about the good times

^{D7}
 Oh if you ever needed help a friend was there^G

^F
 Some good neighbor help lift your burden^C

Hmm, and the simple joys of life a friend would share^C

 Times are harder and the people are changin'^F

 Now most folks couldn't tell ya who their neighbors are^G

All the guns are loaded the front doors are bolted^F
^C

^{C7}
 Ain't this old world takin' hate and fear just a little too

Oh you talk about the good times^F

Talk about the good times

I wish I could go back to the days I'm speakin' of^{D7} ^G

When a friend would meet you and a smile would greet you^F ^C

^C What this old world needs now is a little old fashioned love^G ^C

^C My granddaddy God rest his soul now^F

Well we had a big long talk together the day he died^C ^G

Said son this world is so full of hate and venom^C ^F

^F
 Oh you talk about the good times

^C
 Talk about the good times

Well I'm gonna see all the friends I knew in the good old days^{D7} ^G

We'll have a big hand shakin' and sit and talk together^F ^C
