Intro: - A

A I play the song, that was our own. Your photographs by C A D Bm
E A my side. I know I can't forget you, so I don't even E A try. A note
C A you left is in my hand, I read again what you say. You're

D Bm E
sorry but you love him, and you both gone away
A D Dbm

Gbm Refrain-This is the story of man, who's world has fallen apart, D A E A and it's the story, that is breaking my heart.

An open fire, a favorite chair, I get a book from the shelf.
But the words I am reading, could apply to myself. (refrain)

Intro: -B

E Gbm B
E Baby don't fall in love with me, I'll only bring you E grief.

E Gbm B E Baby don't set your heart on me, I'll only have to leave.

E A E A
E Refrain-Because the north winds flows through my veins. Like
A E

Dbm
my dad there's a dream in my brain. In the morning I'll have to

Gbm A E D leave again, well that's how it is when you, inherit the wind,

E B inherit the wind
Daddy he was a traveling man. I hardly knew his face.
Mama she cried for him at night, he never stayed in one place Well I can't give you the love you need. You just won't be here that long. But if you still want me here tonight, I'll love you till
the break of dawn
