True Love Travels on a Gravel Road
 C Em
 How many Girls choose cotton dress worlds
 F C
 When they could have satins and lace
 F G
 And stand by her man, never once lettinG shade touch her Face
 C
 How many hearts could live through all the winters
 F C
 We've known and still not be cold
 C F C
 True love travels on a Gravel road.
 C

Love is a stranGer and hearts are in danGer
 F C
 On smooth streets paved with Gold
 For true love travels on a Gravel road.
 Down through the years we've had hard times and tears
 But they only helped our love Grow
 And we'll stay together no matter how stronG the wind blows
 Not once have I seen your blue eyes Filled with envy
 Or stray From the one that you hold
 Oh true love travels on a Gravel road.
 Love is a stranGer and hearts are in danGer
 All through streets paved with Gold
 For true love travels on a Gravel road.
 Yeah, true love travels on a Gravel road. Mmmm
 True love travels on a Gravel road.
 True love travels on a Gravel road.
