

Emblem3 - Teenage Kings

Tom: C

I take a puff on my cigarette, then I say what up like,
 "Hello." Party hard, pedal to the metal. A part of growing up is living like a rebel. No stoppin the girls from teeny-boppin. No tops, she's rockin bikini bottoms. Backyard boxin, half pipe droppin, the jocks and the nerds man everybody's rockin.
 And when we are all looking back (one day when we're lookin back), we'll think of this night so let's make it last.
 Cause we're teenage kings pretending we're famous. And we won't leave til someone gets shameless. It's a five day fight til the saturday night when the guys get high and the girls get loose. Teenage kings pretending we're famous, yeah.
 I take a sip off another Red Bull, everybody on the move lookin for someone to X0. Everything is good, and everything is cool, except for the fool who fell into the pool. What up ladies, I'm glad that you could stop by. Freshman trippin out because he got high. And daisy dukes when you walk yeah by, I swat thighs. Let the good times roll and let the top fly.

 think of this night so let's make it last.
 won't leave til
 night when
 pretending we're famous, yeah.
 Leela and Joe sit with Jack McColl. Jay's actin dumb runnin into walls.
 Someone's passed out with the candle. We're rollin, we're rollin, like teenage kings.
 And when we are all looking back, we'll think of this night so let's make it last.
 won't leave til
 night when the guys get high and the girls get loose. Teenage kings pretending we're famous,
