

Emezie - Caboose

tom:

Intro:

[Primeira Parte]

As fast as a speeding building

Can leap over bullets with kevlar shoes

And though I have no loco motives

I'd gladly lift a train to save her caboose

I am strong, I am fearless

Not a single flaw in a single part

[Pré-Refrão]

Except for one weakness

My achilles heel

A cursed kryptonite heart

[Refrão]

Get out of my heart

I'm heading back to the start

Oh damn, this kryptonite heart

Oh damn, this kryptonite heart

[Segunda Parte]

I had a dream that you loved me

I had a dream that you still gave a damn

I had a dream of defeating

An army of tears with the strength in my hand

In this dream oh so fleeting

I swear my heart was still beating, oh but

[Pré-Refrão]

I woke up

I woke up

Damn this heart so misleading

[Refrão]

Out of my heart

I'm heading back to the start

Oh damn this Kryptonite heart

Oh damn this Kryptonite heart

[Ponte]

This super strength and super speed,

They make me think that probably

I should be much more intrigued

By serious, more grown-up things

But here again, I'm stuck instead

On why butterflies and supermen

Cannot be good, good friends again

Oh will this trip ever end?

[Refrão]

If I play my part

Can I go back to the start

Will you release my heart?

Will you release my heart?

Will you release my heart?

Will you release my heart?

Will you release my heart?

(I think maybe I tried too hard)

Will you release my heart?

(I think maybe I tried too hard)

Will you release my heart?

(I think maybe I tried too hard)

Will you release my heart?

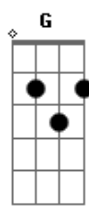

(It only made us drift apart)

(I think maybe I tried too hard)

[Final]
