

Emmy Rossum - Falling Forward

Tom: Gb

Finally I'm laying down these arms
 The ones I held so close to see me through
 And I'm just like a sparrow in a barn
 I'm flyin' for that tiny patch of blue

I dive head-first into the dark
 I don't look back, I just keep stumbling
 I trip and fall
 I hit the ground, I skin my knees
 I just keep going
 I made a mess
 I've been a mess, I guess
 And guess what, life is messy
 And if I learned anything

At least I'm falling forward
 At least I'm falling forward
 Because of you

I'm fallin' forward
 Finally I'm laying down these arms
 The ones I held so close to see me through
 And I'm just like a sparrow in a barn

I'm flyin' for that tiny patch of blue
 I dive head-first into the dark
 I don't look back, I just keep swimming
 I trip and fall
 I hit the ground, I skin my knees
 I just keep going
 I made a mess
 I've been a mess, I guess
 And guess what, life is messy
 But if I learned anything
 From you

At least I'm falling forward
 At least I'm falling forward
 At least I'm falling forward
 At least I'm falling forward
 Because of you
 Forward, forward, forward, forward
 Because of you

Finally I'm laying down these arms
 The ones I held so close to see me through
 And I'm just like a sparrow in a barn
 I'm flyin' for that tiny patch of blue
