

Eric Clapton - Broken Hearted

Tom: E

B B Dbm Dbm
When the wind blows down this hard
B B A E
Many a bond is broken
B B Dbm Dbm
See the water lie on the ground
B B A E
From where the heavens opened

E A2 Gbm B
Lord, how will you get through this night
E Dbm Gbm B
With your dreams departed?
B B Dbm Dbm
And who alone will comfort you?
B B A E
Only the broken hear-art
A E
Hear-art-ed

B B Dbm Dbm
So you've gone beyond your means
B B A E
Every wound is open
B B Dbm Dbm
Your best laid plans are out of reach
B B A E
And all your fears unspoken

E A2 Gbm B
Lord, how will you get through this night
E Dbm Gbm B
With your dreams departed?

B B Dbm Dbm
And who alone will comfort you?
B B A E
Only the broken hear-art
A E
Hear-art-ed

Gb Gb B B
Sweet revenge is spoken then
A Dbm
In the twilight it is gone
Gb Gb B B
To living lies with no escape
E A E A E
Lord, I would rather be alone

B B Dbm Dbm
I press my fingers to the wood
B B A E
To tell you of my dreaming
B B Dbm Dbm
To sing you songs from olden times
B B A E
To keep the love light gleaming

E A2 Gbm B
'Cause there's a place where we can go
E Dbm Gbm B
Where we will not be parted
B B Dbm Dbm
And who alone will enter there?
B B A E
Only the broken hearted
A E
Hear-art-ed
