

Tom: G

Eric Clapton - Lost And Found

```
Riff 4 Times
Intro Riff:
                                                                 Then Play This 4 Times:
(Riff with G Power Chord)
                                                                 It's not the same
Falling in the deep end
Stop messin' around
                                                                When your gone
I cant keep from falling
When you're not around
                                                                 Feel like I'm
I cant no rest when you leave
                                                                Half of myself
Your love keeps me burnin'
You got me lost and found
                                                                      C7
                                                                Cause I can't keep my feet on the ground C Ab
And my world keeps turnin'
                                                                 You keep me lost and found
It's not the same
                                                                 And girl it feels good
When vou're gone
                                                                 So, I want you to know
Feel like I'm
                                                                 I'm ready to let it show
Half of myself
                                                                That I'll be around
     C7
Cause I need to have you around
                                                                 So, I want you to know
Riff 4 Times
                                                                 I'm ready to let it show
(Riff with power chord again)
                                                                 That I'll be around
I need to hear that sound
Of you creepin in the mornin'
I need to look in your eyes
When it keeps me learnin'
                                                                 Can't keep my feet on the ground
                                                                                     C Ab
                                                                 You keep me lost and found
It's not the same
                                                                 And girl it feels good
When your gone
                                                                 C7
                                                                                   C7 A
                                                                 So, I want you to know
Feel like I'm
                                                                 I'm ready to let it show
Half of myself
                                                                 That I'll be around
     C7
Cause I can't keep my feet on the ground
C Ab
                                                                 So, I want you to know
You keep me lost and found
                                                                 I'm ready to let it show
And girl it feels good
                  C7 A
So, I want you to know
                                                                Riff 4 Times
I'm ready to let it show
                                                                 Then Play This 12 Times:
```

That I'll be around
