

Esmé Patterson - My Young Man

Tom: C
Intro: C

C Am F
Last night so sharp was feeling
G F G C
So tender were our lips and hands
C Am F G
In your arms our sound was light
F G C
All was joy and all was love

C Am F G C
My young man don't make your mind up yet
C Am F G C
Won't you look into my heart and see that all of my blood is still red
C Am F G C
Alive from the moon and all of those words left unsaid
C Am F G C
My young man, come lie down in my bed
C Am F G F G C
Don't you, don't you make your mind up yet

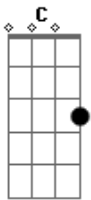

C Am F G
Night is long, and we forget
F G C
The earth has turned halfway around
C Am F G F
And in the still movement of sleep
G C
We have also turned

C Am F G C
My young man don't make your mind up yet
C Am F G C
Won't you look into my heart and see that all of my blood is still red
C Am F G C
Alive from the moon and all of those words left unsaid
C Am F G C
My young man, come lie down in my bed
C Am F G F G C
Don't you, don't you make your mind up yet

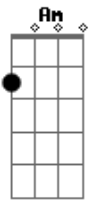

C Am F G
You're the sun, and I'm the land
F G C
Give me all of your fear and fire
C Am F G
I'm the moon and you're the waves
F G C
I'll make you move as I desire

C Am F G C
My young man don't make your mind up yet
C Am F G C
Won't you look into my heart and see that all of my blood is still red
C Am F G C
Alive from the moon and all of those words left unsaid
C Am F G C
My young man, come lie down in my bed
C Am F G F G C
Don't you, don't you make your mind up yet
