

Etham - Control

Tom: G

Just control yourself
 I'll give you everything
 All I got for you
 I know I'm not only one with a fear
 It just feels like I've used all my tears on you
 And if you can't control yourself
 Then there's no point in using up my years
 And I know you've been feeling down
 But this hopeless
 'Cause I know
 I can't make you turn this around
 Just control yourself
 I'll give you everything
 All I got for you
 Just control yourself
 Don't just walk away
 Just take the blame
 'Cause your pain is killing me now
 I feel all your hurt but that don't mean
 It won't get worse
 I hear all your thoughts, in my head
 You're the one thing that I can not live without

No way, no
 Oh, I know there's nothing that
 I wouldn't go through
 There's no gun that could turn this around
 Just control yourself
 I'll give you everything
 All I got for you
 Just control yourself
 Don't just walk away
 Just take the blame
 'Cause your pain is killing me now
 There's some things that I didn't do
 That made me hate myself
 There's so many lies in the truth
 From where we fell
 Just control yourself
 I'll give you everything
 All I got for you
 Just control yourself
 I'll give you everything
 All I got for you
 Just control yourself
 Don't just walk away
 Just take the blame
