

Evanescence - Angel of Mine

Tom: Gb

You are everything I need to see
 Smile and sunlight makes sunlight to me
 Laugh and come and look into me
 Drips of moonlight washing over me
 Can I show you what want from me

 Angel of mine, can I thank you
 You have saved me time and time again
 Angel, I must confess
 It's you that always gives me strength
 And I don't know where I'd be without you

 After all these years, one thing is true
 Constant force within my heart is you

You touch me, I feel I'm moving into you
 I treasure every day I spend with you
 All the things I am come down to you

 Angel of mine
 Let me thank you
 You have saved me time and time again
 Angel, I must confess
 It's you that always gives me strength
 And I don't know where I'd be without you

 Back in the arms of my angel
 Back to the peace that I so love
 Back in the arms of my angel I can finally rest
 Giving you a gift that you remind me
