

Evanescence - Imperfection

Tom: G

Em
The more you try to fight it
Em
The more you try to hide it
Em
The more infected, rejected, you feel alone inside it
Em
You know you can't deny it
Em
The world's a little more fucked up everyday
Em
I'm gonna save you from it
Em
Together we'll outrun it
Em
Just don't give into the fear
Em
So many things I would've told you If I knew that I was never gonna see you again

Em
I wanna lift you up into the light that you deserve
Em
I wanna take your pain into myself so you won't hurt

C Em
Don't you dare surrender
Am Em
Don't leave me here without you
C Em
Cause I would never
Am Em
Replace your perfect imperfection

Em
The way you look us over
Em
Your counterfeit composure
Em
Pushing again and again and sinking lower and lower
Em
The world is on its shoulders
Em
Do you really know the weight of the words you say?

Em
You want a little of it

Em
You just can't let go of it
Em
You've got an ego to feed
Em
Too late to rise above it
Em
Don't look now but the little girl's got a grenade
Em
I'm gonna lift you up into the light you deserve
Em
I'm gonna take you down to the real world so you can watch it burn

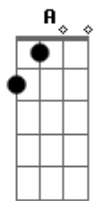

C Em
Don't you dare surrender
Am Em
C Em
Cause I would never
Am Em
Replace your perfect imperfection

Em
We stand undefined
Em
Can't be drawn with a straight line
Em
This will not be our ending
Em A A2
We are alive, we are alive

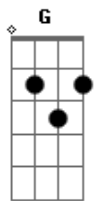

C Em
Don't you dare surrender
Am Em
Don't leave me here without you
C Em
Cause I would never
Am Em
Replace your perfect imperfection

C Em
Don't you dare surrender
Am Em
Don't leave me here without you
C Em
Cause I would never
Am Em
