

Evanescence - Take Cover

Tom: F

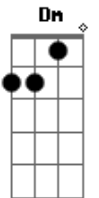

By the way that you talk to me
 I can see the liar, dream that I'll believe
 By the way, don't you forget
 Who you are now
 ?Cause that's not your name
 You better take cover
 I'm coming back to take your world down
 Move over, if you can
 You're gonna wish that you did
 Seed to your insecurity

That's what drove you down in the first place but you had enough of me
 In your big web of lies
 Gonna be the bitch you make me out to be
 Oh, you better take cover
 You are the last to face it, my wrath?
 Move over if you can
 Make you feel my wrath
 Take cover
 I'm gonna have to take you all down
 Move over if you can
 You're gonna wish that you did
