

Evanescence - Your Star

Tom: Eb

I can't see your star
 I can't see your star

Though I patiently waited, bedside, for the death of today
 I can't see your star

The mechanical lights of Lisbon frightened it away
 And I'm alone now

Me and all I stood for
 We're wandering now

All in parts in pieces, swim lonely
 Find your own way out

I can't see your star
 I can't see your star

How can the darkness feel so wrong?
 And I'm alone now

Me and all I stood for
 We're wandering now

All in parts in pieces, swim lonely
 Find your own way out

Nothing worth fighting for
 We're wandering now

All in parts and pieces, swim lonely
 Find your own way out
