

Evanescence - Your Star

Tom: Eb

I can't see your star
 I can't see your star
 Though I patiently waited, bedside, for the death of today
 I can't see your star
 The mechanical lights of Lisbon frightened it away
 And I'm alone now
 Me and all I stood for
 We're wondering now
 All in parts in pieces, swim lonely
 Find your own way out
 I can't see your star
 I can't see your star
 How can the darkness feel so wrong?
 And I'm alone now
 Me and all I stood for
 We're wandering now

All in parts in pieces, swim lonely
 Find your own way out
 So far away
 It's growing colder without your love
 Why can't you feel me calling your name?
 Can't break the silence, it's breaking me
 All my fears turn to rage
 And I'm alone now
 Me and all i stood for
 We're wandering now
 All in parts and pieces, swim lonely
 Find your own way out
 Nothing worth fighting for
 We're wandering now
 All in parts and pieces, swim lonely
 Find your own way out
