Solo not included.

The opening section is played with clean guitar and delay set at around 340 milliseconds. (half of what you hear on the record is just slapback echoes).

There's a lot of slide guitar during the chorus which I've haven't bothered with.

I've tried to keep the lyrics in time with the music. To keep from wasting space where there's a lot of words but not much music happening, I put the words in brackets. When the brackets end, the next word is in time with the tablature above it.

As usual, the layout of this is a mess. I understand it but no-one else probably will. Tough :-)

Key:

M above note = palm-mute
a.h = artificial harmonic
= hammer/pull
3(b)5 = bend 3rd fret to 5th

That's it. There's a fair bit more, but I haven't gotten around to it, and may not ever.
