

Famiclone - Lost In Labyrinth Zone

tom:

Intro: Dbm A E B

Ritalin and Caffeine

Are two of my closest friends

I spent nine days awake

Writing songs to make amends

With my long gone self esteem

With my validation needs

And all the thoughts and feelings

That have been haunting my dreams

I've been playing video games

To escape the hell i'm living in

I'd rather face the cacodemons

That don't live inside me

My mind feels like a mosh pit

Of emotions and regrets

A fucked up carousel

Of memories I can't forget

I feel I'm drowning

In Labyrinth Zone

I'm counting

The seconds on

My last air bubble

Ready to explode

I feel it's game over

For me tonight

No continues

Or extra lives

Despite my efforts

It's my final fight

I've been running out of space

And I've been running out of time

Like a hard boss on a Touhou game

I'm playing with my mind

I've been locked inside my room

Haven't seen sunlight in days

I know this pain is temporary

But tonight it's killing me

I feel I'm drowning

In Labyrinth Zone

I'm counting

The seconds on

My last air bubble

Ready to explode

I feel it's game over

For me tonight

No continues

Or extra lives

Despite my efforts

It's my final fight
