 A
 Em
 He fell on black days, he was always a good friend to me
 A E
 Told me the pain that he felt when he was a kid
 D
 Bout the way that his father sits strong at the table
 Gm C
 But never said a single word to him
 D Gm
 My friend's in danger now
 D Gm E
 My friend's in danger now
 A Em
 He'd sing all the songs, the ones fathers teach sons how to sing
 A Em
 He'd put food on the table and always left a place for me
 D
 The black hole in the sun that he wanted to come
 Gm C
 Would never wash away the pain we feel

D Gm
 Think my friend's in danger now
 D Gm E
 My friend's in danger now
 A G Gb F E
 It's all a bad, bad, bad dream
 A G Gb F E
 Sometimes a bad, bad, bad dream
 E
 Could wake a good man from his sleep at night

(A Em A B A Em)
 (D Gb Gm C)

D Gm
 My friend's in danger now
 D Gm E
 Cause my friend's in danger now
