

Fantine Thó - Born Again At Sunrise

tom:

A

Take this water

A

Wash your face and hands

D

The time has come to be born again

A

For a new beginning

We'll forgive mistakes

Preparation for a brand new day

E

The doors have opened to our paradise

D

That pain you're feeling we'll just sacrifice

It's been hurting way too long now

We'll make a list of things we wanna have

And only hold on to what makes us laugh

E

Even if those memories are old

Takes time to remember

Takes love to find

That one thing in your tender heart

That has never left your side

It's your life now

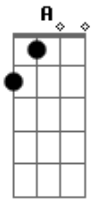

One day at a time

You'll be born again at sunrise

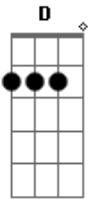

Life now, one day at a time

You'll be born again at sunrise
