

Far From Alaska - Relentless Game

Tom: A

Spent my living
Feeling blue
Full of boundaries
Like I was taught to
Spent my living
On my own
Feeling sorry
For what I've become

Ritmo por trás da próxima parte

Catatonic
White blank page
No aim, no goal
Walking in a maze

And I kept going
Like a fool
Faking cool lines
Like I had a clue

Now I'm walking
In my own shoes
Down the path that
Life's forced me to

Then I could see
My future-self
Caring no more
'Bout this living hell

Break me, take me
Relentless game
Cause I'm not the one
I was before and I claim to
Live and die among the rest
Break me, take me
Relentless game
Off the chains I go

Release my soul and drown myself

In tides of what is truly new

The world's weight on my back
And I'm not going back home
In my journey I craft
The love, the joys of tomorrow (I'm not going back home)
