Em B7
 How many people rise and say
 C D7 Em
 My brains so awfully glad to be here for yet another mindless day
 Em B7
 Now I've got all morning to obsessively accrue
 C D7
 A small nation of meaningful objects they've gotta represent me too
 B7 C
 By this afternoon Ill live in debt
 D7 Em
 And by tomorrow be replaced by children
 How many people rise and think
 Oh good the stranger's body's still here
 Our arrangement hasn't changed
 Now I've got a lifetime to consider all the ways
 I grow more disappointing to you as my beauty warps and fades
 I suspect you feel the same
 When I was young I dreamt of a passionate obligation to a roommate
 G Gaug G7

Is this the part where I get all I ever wanted
 C
 Who said that?
 D7 Am Dbdim C
 Can I get my money back?
 G D7 Em
 I'm just a little bored in the USA
 C G D7 Em
 Oh just a little bored in the USA
 C
 Save me white Jesus
 G D7 Em C
 Bored in the USA
 B7 C
 They gave me useless education
 G D7
 And a sub-prime loan on a craftsman home
 Dbdim
 Keep my prescriptions filled
 C Dbdim
 And now I can't get off but I can kind of deal
 G D7 Em
 Oh with being bored in the USA
 C G D7 Em
 Oh just a little bored in the USA
 C
 Save me president Jesus
 G D7 Em
 I'm bored in the USA
 C
 How did it happen
 G D7 Em
 Bored in the USA
 C Dbdim C
 Oooohhhhhhhhhhh
