B7 C G

Someone's got to help me dig

Jesus Christ, girl

It hasn't been long so it seems

Since I was picking out an island and a tomb for you

At the Hollywood Cemetery

You kiss

On me

We should let this dead guy sleep

We should let this dead guy sleep

Jesus Christ, girl

I laid up for hours in a daze

Retracing the expanse of your American back

With Adderall and weed in my veins

You came

I think

Cause the marble made my cheeks look pink

But I'm unsure of so many things

Someone's got to help me dig

Someone's got to help me dig
